Class: 6th Grade

Date: September 09, 2019

Week of 09/09 – 13/ 2019	This week we focus on:
ELA: Continuation of August 26-30/2019
"The ACES Phone" (author-Jeanne Du Prau) Preparation: Students will
* read, discuss and take notes,
* chart the following
- technology of the future
- events that could not happen i	in real life
- ideas that are based on scienc
* apply scientific characteristics to ters, setting plot, episodes, alliteration, style, tone
*notice how the sequences of episo	odes relate to changes in the characters
*describe how the story's plot unfo	olds and how characters respond and change
*analyze style and tone
*answer questions orally and in wr	iting Vocabulary: void, clamor, alliteration, torrent, edging thump, wafting, transmission, doleful, swivel, coaxed, urg	ent, rising action, falling action, climax resolution IXL: Reading Section:
Section D - Compare/Contrast Te	ext Structure:
Matching Cause/Effe	oct
Students will read introductory m	aterial and study examples before working with the problems
Continue reading in class and at home "T	'he Phantom Tollbooth"